FAITHFUL IN THE LORD

Scripture Text: Genesis 14

SERMON
NOTES

Summary Statement:

God calls the faithful in the world to deliver with unwavering trust and to worship.

Staying faithful in

1) The Crisis (vv1-12)

- i. The two warring coalitions of kings (v14)
 - ii. The battle progress (vv5-7)
 - iii. The defeat (vv8-11)
 - iv. The capture of Lot (v12)
- Contrast of the two Pilgrims

Reflection: Are there any temptation to ungodly decisions that may lead to crisis? Will you choose to stay faithful to the Lord with unwavering trust or follow the worldly ways?

2) The Conquest (vv13-16)

- Contrast of the Pilgrim – Faithful to identity
- In the world, but not of the world
- God uses the faithful pilgrim to deliver

Reflection: In crisis, will we continue to trust God to deliver? Will we stay faithful and allow God to use us to deliver others?

3) The Celebration (vv17-24)

Who is Melchizedek? (cg Psalm 110:1-4, Hebrews 7)

- Contrast of the welcome
 - i. Blessings
 - ii. God as Creator and Deliver
- Contrast of the response
 - i. Compromise which leads to worldliness (vv21-22)
 - ii. Integrity which leads to worship (vv17-20, 22-24)

Reflection: Will we choose to respond in integrity or compromise? How will we celebrate God's deliverance – acknowledging Him for who He is and what He has done?

Sermon Discussion Questions for Missional Cells

1. What are some crisis moments that you have seen around you or personally experience? How have you seen God deliver those in crisis?
2. How can you remain faithful so that God can use you to deliver others in crisis?
3. Respond in worship –
 - i) Share one attribute of God that you want to acknowledge in this season.
 - ii) Thank God for how he has delivered you.
